

PASSION FOCUS SHEET

NAME _____

As you complete this self-reflecting exercise honestly, you will discover your God-given ministry passion. Your passion is an inner motivation that stirs your heart and causes you to fully embrace a particular ministry. It creates a strong interest, deep concern, and the longing to make a significant impact. Passion is the difference between “feeling” like you are helping out versus “fulfilling” God’s designed mission for your life.

1. I prefer serving: (check all that apply)

___ up front, ___ behind the scenes, ___ alone, ___ in a group (preferred size ___)

2. I would most likely work in the following areas: (choose no more than 2) ___ specific tasks or projects, ___ direct people ministry, ___ creative ideas, vision, dreaming up new things, ___ information (study/research) ___ planning and organizing (people or projects), ___ other _____

3. I have the greatest concern or burden for the following people groups (choose only 3)

___ senior citizens ___ teenagers ___ babies/toddlers ___ poor ___ College students ___ Single parents ___ addicts ___ homeless ___ Chronically ill ___ Women ___ newlyweds/engaged ___ middle aged couples ___ young married ___ Men ___ single adults (ages ___ to ___)

4. I have a strong desire to affect change regarding the following issues (choose only 3)

___ Aids ___ marriage problems ___ Abortion ___ Crime ___ Politics
___ Poverty ___ Homosexuality ___ nature issues ___ drug/alcohol addictions ___ Racism ___ latch key kids ___ illiteracy/education ___ Other _____

5. I am most drawn to the following general ministry areas: (choose only 3)

- World missions local missions Children Worship/Music ushering small groups (long lasting deep friendship) healing prayer Tiny groups (always changing/meeting new people) fellowship sports short groups (only 6-8 week commitment at a time) Evangelism Administration Bible school (being taught, studying, researching) stewardship (finance) Discipleship (spiritual growth) fellowship (just hanging out) caring/nurturing landscaping over 50 youth 30-50 communion hospitality

6. If I could accomplish anything for God and not fail, I would do this: (time and money are not issued. Dream big!)

7. I know I do NOT want to participate in these ministry areas:

8. I am receiving the Humanitarian of the Year award with 2,000 people in attendance. I am being honored for the following:

9. I would like my tombstone to read:

10. Simply state your ministry passion by incorporating some of the dominate themes expressed in your previous “passion” responses, your motivational gifts, and personality profile (D.I.S.C.).
